Level 3 – Additional Leadership Workshops

Name: __________________________________________

Complete three workshops. The workshops must be different than those applied toward Level 2. An appropriate workshop is a minimum of one hour, up to two and one-half hours (additional hours may count toward additional workshop credits).

Choosing Workshops – Workshops may be offered by the Leadership Development Center, another campus department or an off-campus organization. Participants are encouraged to choose workshops based on their interests and development goals. Appropriate choices generally fall into one of the following categories:

1. Direct skill-building workshops (e.g. delegation, motivating members, conflict management)
2. Workshops in special topics of interest to the developing leader (e.g. the environment, racial equality)

Workshop credit is subject to approval by the Program Coordinator.
